Photos: 33rd ESRI User Conference, San Diego, California, July 2013

The 2013 ESRI User Conference was held in San Diego from July 8-12. As in the past several years, GISCorps had a special exhibit in the Map Gallery where 100's of existing and new volunteers stopped by and visited with the Core Committee (CC) members and other volunteers. The CC members and volunteers also presented at the annual session on Wednesday. The following photos were taken during the week.
